STATEMENT REGARDING EEO COMPLAINT

No.15

I previously filed an EEO complaint for race discrimination at TSA Honolulu International Airport for failure to promote. I contacted and requested EEO counseling June 23, 2003. EEO Counselor Farha M. Rahman discussed my complaint with me by phone twice. Enclosed is a report of our EEO counseling session. Since I have worked at TSA Honolulu International Airport, there have been four opportunities where screening supervisors could be promoted to screening managers. I am qualified. I applied for all vacancies. I was not promoted to any of the vacancies. I am African American. In August 1, 2003, I applied for promotion as screening manager, for 3 more vacancies. Once again, I was not promoted. I called Tom Ward in Washington D.C., TSA recruitment center and was told that I was on the list approved for promotion. However Honolulu TSA Security Director Sidney Hiyakawa did not promote me. I asked Sidney Hiyakawa why I was not promoted on September 4, 2003. He told me he was not involved in the selections for screening managers, however he did approve the promotions. I believe the failure to promote was based upon race and retaliation because I previously filed an EEO complaint. On September 6, 2003 I found out that three screening supervisors were placed in rotation for screening manager. I am not included in this rotation.

No. 17. Corrective Action Requested.

Promotion, Increase in pay, Back Pay, Interest, Compensatory Damages for pain, suffering and mental anguish, punitive damages, costs and attorneys fees.
